Young girls reported heightened body dissatisfaction after playing a children's internet game for just 10 minutes, a study has found.
Primary school children expressed a more pronounced desire for a slimmer figure immediately after playing a free game which challenges players to give a female character a makeover for a date.
For the study conducted by the University of the West of England (UWE) Tj T* sed games targeted at girls hosted on the Friv website; A group of 40 eight and nine-year-olds from the South West of England played the makeover game, which sees players changing the hair and clothing of a female character to match a boy character's ideal. Another 40 played Pengu in Diner, a game from the same website which is not based on appearance.

Participants were then instructed to select the silhouette of a body shape which most closely represented their own, and the one most desirable to them. Both groups recorded a preference for a slimmer
